

National Neonatal Palliative Care Programme Programme

National multi-disciplinary training sessions occur virtually every month, covering a variety of key topics:

Enhanced: Rolling monthly programme of key topics, including, cultural perspectives, symptom management, ethical considerations, interdisciplinary working, choice of location of care, communicating effectively with parents, sibling support, multiple births and antenatal perspectives.

Monthly Monday's: Rolling monthly programme with key speakers covering relevant topics, including Breast care choices & milk donation; integrating cultural perspectives; national charities support, Perinatal Post-Mortems & Organ donation, Transport services, hospice support, staff wellbeing, communicating with families & much more.

ENHANCED session dates (Fridays, 10am-12pm)

Register here

- 12th September 25 – 'The role of the Medical Examiner and the Coroner' with Dr Lydia Bowden, Complex and Palliative care lead, Consultant Neonatologist.
- 10th October 25 - 'The role of the midwife within a children's hospice and Neonatal Palliative Care', with Sara Balmforth, Perinatal Midwife, Forget Me Not Hospice; Jennifer Burnham, Hospice Midwife, Noah's Ark Children's Hospice; Michaela Griffiths, Hospice Midwife at Helen and Douglas House and Maria Williamson, Midwife, Derian house.
- 7th November 25 – Topic TBC
- 5th December 25 – 'QIP work on Emotional/Psychological and Religious/Spiritual support offered to parents during End-of-Life care' with Dr Vaishali Patel, Neonatal Consultant, Grange University Hospital, South Wales.

Monthly Monday session dates (2pm-4pm)

Register here

- 22nd September 25 – 'Recognising Jaundice in Black, Asian and Brown Babies: Improving Equity in Neonatal Care' with Dr Helen Gbinigie, Consultant Neonatologist & Neonatal Clinical Lead
- 20th October 25 – 'Use of cooling technologies in perinatal after death care' with Dr Christine Mott, Paediatric Palliative Care Clinical Lead West Midlands, Co-chair of APPM
- 24th November 25 - 'The role of the GP in Neonatal Palliative Care' with Dr Bryony Kendall, Named GP for Safeguarding, Cheshire & Merseyside
- 15th December 25 – Topic TBC

This training forms part of the National Neonatal Palliative Care Programme. For further details, please contact:

Alex Mancini: a.mancini@nhs.net
neonatalpalliativecareprogram@cwplus.org.uk
 This programme is supported & endorsed by: